The Golden Fleece

A summary of Jason and his Quest for The Argonauts — Greek mythology

Jason, leader of the Argonauts and their quest for the Golden Fleece. Jason assembled a great group of heroes, known as the Argonauts after their ship, the Argo. Jason assembled a great group of heroes, known as the Argonauts after their ship, the Argo. The group of heroes included the Boreads (sons of Boreas, the North Wind) who could fly, Heracles, Philoctetes, Peleus, Telamon, Orpheus, Castor and Pollux, Atalanta, and Euphemus.

Jason arrived in Colchis to claim the fleece as his own. It was owned by King Aeetes of Colchis. The fleece was given to him by Phrixus. Aeetes promised to give it to Jason only if he could perform three certain tasks. Presented with the tasks, Jason became discouraged and fell into depression. However, Hera had persuaded Aphrodite to convince her son Eros to make Aeetes's daughter, Medea, fall in love with Jason. As a result, Medea aided Jason in his tasks. First, Jason had to plow a field with fire-breathing oxen, the Khalkotauri, that he had to yoke himself. Medea provided an ointment that protected him from the oxen's flames. Then, Jason sowed the teeth of a dragon into a field. The teeth sprouted into an army of warriors (spartoi). Medea had previously warned Jason of this and told him how to defeat this foe. Before they attacked him, he threw a rock into the crowd. Unable to discover where the rock had come from, the soldiers attacked and defeated one another. His last task was to overcome the sleepless dragon which guarded the Golden Fleece. Jason sprayed the dragon with a potion, given by Medea, distilled from herbs. The dragon fell asleep, and Jason was able to seize the Golden Fleece. He then sailed away with Medea.

Brethren and all,

September is here which means it's still miserably hot in Florida, but soon our migrating bothers and their loved ones will be heading south for the winter. I would like to bid you a warm welcome back and remind you that Groveland Lodge has missed your presence.

Brothers, are you satisfied with your Lodge? Does it fulfill the reasons why you became a Mason and have remained loyal to the fraternity for many years? I recently read a survey taken by approximately 1,200 Masons that nearly 66% were not satisfied with their Blue Lodge. Why is this?

Many of us are content with the "status quo", Groveland Lodge is almost 106 years old... what we do works. Others are there for their own "modus operandi", concealing their own agenda under the veil of the fraternity, to gain Masonic and social recognition. Still others attend simply to be contrarian, to cause disharmony and chaos, in what should be a harmonious and orderly place.

None of these are acceptable brothers, not a single one. How do we expect to maintain and grow this Lodge? By doing the same old thing... No! By being consumed by our own motives, or the motives of others...Negative! By falling prey to the contention of the contrary, therefore sowing the seeds of discord... I think not!

If there is something that needs to be changed, change it yourself. If you don't like how something is being done, be a man and talk to who is doing it wrong, don't go off and whisper it in a dark corner to another brother. If something needs done at the Lodge do it yourself, don't wait to bring it up during a stated communication... do it. We don't need a vote, a motion, or a second to change a light bulb. We're all so busy with, work, retirement, home life, kids, grand kids, honey-do this and honey-do that, that we forget so is the person next to you.

The duties of the Lodge fall far beyond committees, and officers, far beyond a hand full of guys always pulling the weight. It is your duty, it is your obligation to make your Lodge amazing, each and every member. No more excuses brothers! I will leave you with a quote about the fraternity, I saw on social media... "There are no more secrets, because we no longer teach them." That short coming is on us brothers, each and every one of us!

Humbly,
DV

Brethren,

Groveland Lodge 190 hosted the 18th District Deputy Grand Master, R. : W. : Alan Heist, R. : W. : Ed Mayfield, District Instructor, and M. : W. : Dale Goehrig, the Past Grand Master of Florida Masons, along with several committeemen representing different district-sponsored programs. This visit took place at our Stated Communication on August 13th.

I have the honor of being District Committeeman for Masonic Education. I get to travel to many different Lodges where I speak to various Brethren about Masonic Education. Therefore, I was especially elated when I was asked to present our own W. :. Bill Price, WM with his certificates stating his completion of the Lodge Officers Training Course. This program is a very in-depth course of study. All Brethren should try to emulate any Brother, most especially our own W. :. Master, who has completed this program.

On July 18th our W. Master permitted me to host a district class for Master Mason Exams I, II, & III. Two of our Brothers took that class, Bro. Ken Averitt and Bro. Jeff Snyder. I was also privileged to award them their certificates. Good work, Brothers.

A magnificent meal was prepared for this event. My wife, Sandee, spent almost eight hours preparing barbecued chicken, vegetables, and also scratch-baked those cakes we had for dessert. Thanks Dear, I love you!

Fraternally,

Jay Kosner, J.W.

FLORIDA HISTORY — SEPTEMBER 1565 A.D.

Spain was not the only European nation that found Florida attractive. In 1562 the French protestant Jean Ribault explored the area. Two years later, fellow Frenchman René Goulaine de Laudonnière established Fort Caroline at the mouth of the St. Johns River, near present-day Jacksonville. These French adventurers prompted Spain to accelerate her plans for colonization.

The Spanish King, Philip II, sent Don Pedro Menéndez de Avilés hastening across the Atlantic, his sights set on removing the French and creating a Spanish settlement. Menéndez arrived in 1565 at a place he called San Agustín (St. Augustine) and, in September 1565, established the first permanent European settlement in what is now the United States. He accomplished his goal of expelling the French, attacking and killing all settlers except for non-combatants and Frenchmen who professed belief in the Roman Catholic faith. Menéndez captured Fort Caroline and renamed it San Mateo.

QUOTE

Truth is more of a stranger than fiction. Mark Twain (Bro Samuel Langhorne Clemens)

A – In Old English “communication” was “to common” – to share with others. In the church “communion “ is the common partaking of a sacrament. In a Masonic Lodge “communion,” “to common,” is to gather in a “communication,” signifying not just a meeting of men to legislate, but a gathering of men with a common purpose, governed by a common idea, believing in a common ideal. It is one of the precious and delightful ways in which Masonry keeps alive an old, old idea in the words of long ago. 101 Questions —Masonic Service Association
