Brethren,
 I plan to honor our Past Masters at our Stated Communication November 12. I hope all of our Brothers will come out to help me show them our appreciation for their contribution to our Lodge. Without them this Lodge would not have existed for over 100 years.

Fraternally,

PAST MASTERS

Some Lodges have evolved a sort of informal organization of their Past Masters into an Advisory Board, a club or association and much good can result from such a move – if its purpose is properly understood. From the Past Masters may be gleaned a vast quantity of valuable material, and as a group, they would make an excellent Advisory Board, should the Master desire them to act in this capacity. They are not infallible, nor are they ever justified in trying to impose their ideas on the Master, but they have had the experience that no one else has had, and such information, discreetly given when requested by the Master, should be most acceptable.

The support of all of the Past Masters is very important and, in most cases, essential to the Master if he is have an outstanding year. The formation of the Past Masters into an Advisory Board by the Master will stimulate in them an incentive to greater interest and more regular attendance and participation in Lodge affairs. Meetings of this group with the Lodge Officers might be arranged whenever deemed most desirable. At such times, the Past Masters' counsel might be solicited concerning any one of a number of varied problems confronting the Lodge. Handbook for Lodge Officers GL-210

Brethren and all,

October is here and its time for holiday preparations to begin. Whether it's finding the perfect pumpkin, biggest turkey, or your families Christmas tree, this is indeed the most wonderful time of the year. Since the weather should be "cooler" its time to think about Groveland 190's road clean up. Brothers the turn out for the last clean up was weak... quite frankly it was pathetic! Three of us showed up and cleaned the road... THREE. We will do the next clean up on Simon Brown Rd on October 24, at 9 AM. If any Brothers are unsure of where Simon Brown Rd is... please feel free to contact our Secretary R.: W.: Simon T. Brown... something tells me, he can give you directions. We will meet at the Lodge at 9 AM, where the Lodge will provide a cup of coffee and a doughnut for your time donation to beautify our city and represent our Lodge. After which we will proceed in precession by truck where we will safety vest up and fill some trash bags. Simple and easy if we get twelve people... it shouldn't take more than an hour or two tops.

Speaking of R.:. W.:. S. T. Brown Jr., I would love to congratulate him on his 50 years as a Master Mason. As a PDDGM, multiple time Past Master, and dedication as Secretary to Groveland Lodge is an inspiration... a legit inspiration. I can only hope that I learn as much as he has forgotten! Being reared by Masons who were brought into the Lodge by R.:. W.:. Brown and seeing the incredible amount of respect and admiration they have for him, personally inspires me to hone my craft and perfect our ritual to the standards that were set long before I was obligated in Groveland Lodge. I realize this is a bit of an homage, but I personally want to thank you for your time and dedication, your knowledge, your sacrifice, you're a great Mason R.:. W.:. Brown. Although I suspect anyone who knows him knows, he is a great man, and Mason. Congrats R.:. W.:. Brown.

Why do men love Masonry? What lures them to it? What spell holds them through the long years? What strand is it that tugs at our hearts, taut when so many threads are broken by the rough ways of the world? And what is it in the wild that calls to the little wild things? What secret things do the mountains whisper to the Hillman, so silently yet so surely that they can be heard above the din and clatter of the world? What mystery does the sea tell the sailor; the desert to the Arab; the Arctic ice to the explorer; the stars to the astronomer?

When we have answered these questions we may define the magic of Masonry. Who knows what it is, or how or why, unless it be the long cable tow of God, running from heart to heart.

My Brothers, the above excerpt was written by Carl Claudy in 1921.

Have things changed much since then? I think not! The Mason of the 21st century still seeks communion with God. We come to Lodge because it is in this sanctum that we can cast off the armor that protects us from the outside world. It is here we can share the true meaning of Brotherly Love.

Fraternally,
Jay Kosner , J.W.

MASONIC EDUCATION
LODGE OFFICERS

When a Member of a Masonic Lodge accepts an office, he assumes a solemn obligation to Masonry and pledges himself to the performance of certain duties and the discharge of specific responsibilities. It is a challenge and a glorious opportunity for service and he will be either beneficial or injurious to the Craft depending upon his leadership, zeal and ability to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the office. LETTER FROM A PAST MASTER

August 27, 2015

Hello Brothers,
Did so many of you do just like I did? Miss one meeting, then two and then just stopped going all together. Think about it.

So many before me gave their time, too. They took time to get proficient to put me through the three Degrees. They took time to teach me the Catechisms of the three Degrees & the other esoteric work. They cleaned & repaired the Lodge, prepared refreshments, filled the chairs on the sidelines and gave me moral support in my progress through the places & stations to the East.

We have about 6% maybe 7% other than the Officers show up for most Stated Communications. I know most of the older Brothers when I came in have gone on to meet with the Grand Architect of the Universe. It is up to you & I to see that what they built stands up. If someone sees that you are a Mason, but that you never go to Lodge meetings they may never join. Our Brothers before us gave their time so we could be Raised Master Masons. Then we quit attending Lodge because we became disappointed with a Brother.

The Lodge needs all of us. We may not like the way the W. Master or other Officers are doing things this year, we all have a vote and can change things next year. I know how easy it is not to go. Just to stay away, but think of the friends you have made. They would like to see you again before it is too late.

Hope to see you soon,
Derwood E. Hyatt, Past Master
